We are cannabis packaging gurus. Whether you're a large cannabis producer, wholesaler, or you're just starting out in the business, Hero has the people and the packaging know-how to help you succeed.

Hero Packaging is all about premium quality cannabis packaging that help bring products and brands to life.

Product styles are curated to just a single style within five categories that include flower, edible and topical, vape and preroll, concentrates, and tincture. Core products include our premium glass concentrate jars, 1oz to 3oz glass jars, and our vape and preroll vials.
